

Connie Baker is a licensed professional counselor with a Master of Arts. She is a clinical supervisor, Masters Level University instructor, Seminar speaker and Workshop facilitator.

She is a Trauma Recovery Specialist, trained life coach and the author of her new book, 'Traumatized by Religious Abuse-Discover the Cultures and Systems of Religious Abuse and Reclaim Your Personal Power'.

It is the culmination of her own story and her years of experience as a therapist.

Connie is sought after for guidance, radio and television interviews, and contributions to magazines for support and education about religious abuse and trauma recovery.

Connie lives in Portland, OR with her husband, JR. They have 3 grown children and 1 grandson.